Sec. 11. Section 38a-928 of the general statutes is repealed and the following is substituted in lieu thereof (Effective October 1, 2025):

(a) Every transfer made or suffered and every obligation incurred by an insurer within one year prior to the filing of a successful petition for rehabilitation or liquidation under sections 38a-903 to 38a-961, inclusive, is fraudulent as to then existing and future creditors if made or incurred without fair consideration, or with [actual] the intent to hinder, delay, or defraud either existing or future creditors. A transfer made or an obligation incurred by an insurer ordered to be rehabilitated or liquidated under said sections, which is fraudulent under this section, may be avoided by the receiver, except as to a person who in good faith is a purchaser, lienor, or obligee for a present fair equivalent value, and except that any purchaser, lienor, or obligee, who in good faith has given a consideration less than fair for such transfer, lien, or obligation, may retain the property, lien or obligation as security for repayment. The court may, on due notice, order any such transfer or obligation to be preserved for the benefit of the estate, and in that event, the receiver shall succeed to and may enforce the rights of the purchaser, lienor, or obligee.

(b) (1) A transfer of property other than real property shall be deemed to be made or suffered when it becomes so far perfected that no subsequent lien obtainable by legal or equitable proceedings on a simple contract could become superior to the rights of the transferee under subsection (c) of section 38a-930.

(2) A transfer of real property shall be deemed to be made or suffered

when it becomes so far perfected that no subsequent bona fide purchaser from the insurer could obtain rights superior to the rights of the transferee.

(3) A transfer which creates an equitable lien shall not be deemed to be perfected if there are available means by which a legal lien could be created.

(4) Any transfer not perfected prior to the filing of a petition for liquidation shall be deemed to be made immediately before the filing of the successful petition.

(5) The provisions of this subsection apply whether or not there are or were creditors who might have obtained any liens or persons who might have become bona fide purchasers.

(c) Any transaction of the insurer with a reinsurer shall be deemed fraudulent and may be avoided by the receiver under subsection (a) of this section if: (1) The transaction consists of the termination, adjustment, or settlement of a reinsurance contract in which the reinsurer is released from any part of its duty to pay the originally specified share of losses that had occurred prior to the time of the transaction, unless the reinsurer gives a present fair equivalent value for the release; and (2) any part of the transaction took place within one year prior to the date of filing of the petition through which the receivership was commenced.

(d) Any person receiving property from the insurer or any benefit thereof which is a fraudulent transfer under subsection (a) of this section shall be personally liable therefor and shall be bound to account to the liquidator.

(e) Notwithstanding the provisions of subsections (a) to (d), inclusive, of this section or any other provision of this chapter, no receiver or any other person shall avoid any transfer or obligation that arises under or in connection with any pledge, security, credit, collateral, loan, advance, reimbursement or guarantee agreement or arrangement or any similar agreement or arrangement or other credit enhancement to which a Federal Home Loan Bank, as defined in 12 USC 1422, as amended from time to time, is a party, that is made, suffered or incurred prior to or after the filing of a successful petition for rehabilitation or liquidation under sections 38a-903 to 38a-961, inclusive. Such transfer or obligation may be avoided by the receiver or other person if such transfer or obligation was made, suffered or incurred with the intent to hinder, delay or defraud the insurer, the receiver or existing or future creditors.

Sec. 12. Subsection (a) of section 38a-930 of the general statutes is repealed and the following is substituted in lieu thereof (Effective October 1, 2025):

(a) (1) A preference is a transfer of any of the property of an insurer to or for the benefit of a creditor, for or on account of an antecedent debt, made or suffered by the insurer within one year before the filing of a successful petition for liquidation under sections 38a-903 to 38a-961, inclusive, the effect of which transfer may be to enable the creditor to obtain a greater percentage of this debt than another creditor of the same class would receive. If a liquidation order is entered while the insurer is already subject to a rehabilitation order, then such transfers shall be deemed preferences if made or suffered within one year before the filing of the successful petition for rehabilitation, or within two years before the filing of the successful petition for liquidation, whichever time is shorter.

(2) [Any] Except as provided in subdivision (5) of this subsection, any preference may be avoided by the liquidator if: (A) The insurer was insolvent at the time of the transfer; (B) the transfer was made within four months before the filing of the petition; (C) the creditor receiving it or to be benefited thereby or such creditor's agent acting with reference thereto had, at the time when the transfer was made, reasonable cause to believe that the insurer was insolvent or was about to become insolvent; or (D) the creditor receiving it was an officer, or any employee or attorney or other person who was in fact in a position of comparable influence in the insurer to an officer whether or not such employee, attorney or other person held such position, or any shareholder holding directly or indirectly more than five per cent of any class of any equity security issued by the insurer, or any other person, firm, corporation, association, or aggregation of persons with whom the insurer did not deal at arm's length.

(3) Where the preference is voidable, the liquidator may recover the property, or if it has been converted, its value from any person who has received or converted the property, except where a bona fide purchaser or lienor has given less than fair equivalent value, such purchaser or lienor shall have a lien upon the property to the extent of the consideration actually given by such purchaser or lienor. Where a preference by way of lien or security title is voidable, the court may on due notice order the lien or title to be preserved for the benefit of the estate, in which event the lien or title shall pass to the liquidator.

(4) Notwithstanding subdivisions (1) to (3), inclusive, of this subsection, a transfer pursuant to a commutation of a reinsurance agreement that is approved by the commissioner or the commissioner's designated appointee under section 38a-962d shall not be voidable as a preference. For the purposes of this subdivision, a commutation of a reinsurance agreement is the elimination of all present and future obligations between the parties, arising from the reinsurance agreement, in exchange for a current consideration.

(5) Notwithstanding the provisions of subdivision (2) of this subsection or any other provision of this chapter, no preference that arises under or in connection with any pledge, security, credit, collateral, loan, advance, reimbursement or guarantee agreement or arrangement or any similar agreement or arrangement or other credit enhancement to which a Federal Home Loan Bank, as defined in 12 USC 1422, as amended from time to time, is a party shall be avoided by the liquidator or any other person.

Sec. 13. (NEW) (Effective October 1, 2025) With respect to an insurer that is subject to any delinquency proceedings, whether formal, informal, administrative or judicial, and is a member of a Federal Home Loan Bank, as defined in 12 USC 1422, as amended from time to time:

(1) If such bank exercises such bank's rights regarding collateral pledged by such insurer, such bank shall repurchase, not later than seven business days after such delinquency proceeding, and to the extent such bank determines in good faith that such repurchase is permissible under applicable laws and regulations and such bank's capital plan and is consistent with such bank's current capital stock practices applicable to such bank's entire membership, any outstanding capital stock that is in excess of the amount of stock of such bank that such insurer is required to hold as a minimum investment.

(2) After the appointment of a receiver for such insurer, such bank shall provide to such receiver, not later than ten business days after a request from such receiver, a process and establish a timeline for all of the following:

(A) The release of such insurer's collateral that exceeds the amount required to support remaining secured obligations of such insurer after any repayment of loans as determined in accordance with applicable agreements between such bank and such insurer;

(B) The release of such insurer's collateral that remains after repayment in full of all outstanding secured obligations of such insurer;

(C) The payment of any fees owed by such insurer and the operation, maintenance, closure or disposition of deposits and other accounts such insurer may have with such bank; and

Substitute House Bill No. 6981

(D) The possible redemption or repurchase of the stock of such bank or excess stock of any class that such insurer is required to hold as a member of such bank.

(3) Upon request from a receiver of such insurer, such bank shall provide to such receiver any available options for such insurer to renew or restructure a loan. Any such options shall be subject to market conditions, the terms of such insurer's outstanding loans, the applicable policies of such bank and such bank's compliance with federal laws and regulations.

Sec. 14. Subsection (b) of section 38a-55 of the general statutes is repealed and the following is substituted in lieu thereof (Effective October 1, 2025):

(b) (1) No domestic insurer, domestic health care center or domestic fraternal benefit society may, without the prior written consent of the Insurance Commissioner, pledge, hypothecate or otherwise encumber its assets to secure its own debt, guaranty or obligations if the amount of the assets pledged, hypothecated or otherwise encumbered, when the pledge, hypothecation or encumbrance is made, together with the aggregate amount of assets pledged, hypothecated or encumbered to secure all such debts, guarantees and obligations, exceeds the lesser of five per cent of admitted assets or twenty-five per cent of surplus as regards policyholders as reported in its last financial statement filed with the commissioner pursuant to section 38a-53 or 38a-614.

(2) Nothing in this subsection shall be construed as prohibiting a domestic insurer, domestic health care center or domestic fraternal benefit society from pledging, hypothecating or encumbering any assets in connection with: (A) Transactions in the ordinary course of business, including, but not limited to: (i) Complying with any statutory requirement, (ii) reinsurance transactions otherwise in compliance with applicable statutory requirements, (iii) participation in the Federal

Assets pledged, hypothecated or encumbered pursuant to subparagraph (A), (B) or (C) of this subdivision shall not be charged against the limits set forth in subdivision (1) of this subsection.

(3) In the case of a domestic life insurance company, the provisions of this subsection shall apply to a separate account only to the extent that reserves for guarantees with respect to (A) benefits guaranteed as to dollar amount and duration or (B) funds guaranteed as to principal amount or stated rate of interest are held in a separate account in accordance with subdivision (3) of subsection (a) of section 38a-433.

(b) (1) When any policy of insurance is procured or renewed under the authority of such license providing a line of insurance or its component that does not, on the effective date of coverage, appear on the current published list, both the licensee and the insured shall first make a diligent effort, as defined by the commissioner, to procure, from any authorized insurer or insurers, the full amount of insurance required to protect the interest of such insured, and further showing (A) that the amount of insurance procured from an unauthorized insurer or insurers is only the excess over the amount so procurable from
